COUNTY NEWS

News of each Community Gathered each week by Our Rustling Associate Editors

Waldport.

The Condor arrived from Portland Wednesday morning.

Erbine Newman, of the forest service, met with a serious accident last week. He was riding in the government launch and stepped into a hole where the shaft coupling tore most of the flesh from the top of his foot. He will be unable to use the foot for several months.

The Wilhelmina came in Wednesday relieving Waldport of a near famine. We were nearly out of everything.

C. F. Pederson is moving onto the Day place on Eckman creek.

The Whist Club has revived. A meeting was held Wednesday evening at Simmons hall.

R. H. Birks has bought five acres near the high school and has commenced clearing it.

W. H. Doyle has been appointed road supervisor again. Mr. Doyle did not have the most names to his petition, but has given general satisfaction in the past.

Archie Brooks has been selected by the voters of the district to make the improvements on the roads for which a special tax was recently voted.

In the selection of our precinct election board we have a new deal. The selection of judges and clerks has been well made and each part of the precinct is represented. The same may be said of the appointments made for the Yachats precinct.

Otis.

Rain! well some; but the sun is just on the other side of the clouds and his face will be all the more appreciated when he does "shine out."

The basket social at the Otis schoolhouse was not largely attended, but a good time was reported.

Alvin Thorp is busy now days running his sawmill cutting plank for the county road, known as the Affolter road. Mr. Resche hauls the logs to the mill and the plank out on the road. They intend to have a good road if they have to do it themselves without pay.

C. S. Parmele is kept busy looking after his cattle now days. He says feed on the range is fine and the cattle don't care much about eating hay.

Abe Logan is able to walk around now. He says he has an itching sensation where the bullet went in.

J. Morris spent a few days with Jakey Johnson last week.

We hear that John Muir, Jr., has gone to California.

Mrs. Nixon and children spent New Years day with Mrs. C. Gilmore.

Mr. Cook, who has been visiting Abe Logan and William Dick, has gone back to the Agency.

Phinley Bones was "sighted" from the high peaks of Salmon river country on his way home from the Valley.

Mr. Dondson's team made a trip to Taft and the driver reports the roads as "bad." Had one horse down three times. We need a few more sawmills.

Lilborn, Hardin, our Salmon river cheese maker, has had his house papered and all fixed up in fine style. You never see bachelors trim up unless something is going to happen. That's right, Lilborn.

Noble Felix has gone to the Valley this week.

Bill Gardner went to Toledo on road business.

Schooner Creek

John Kosk went to Portland Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Gertulla went to Clatskanie last Wednesday to visit her parents and bring her two sisters home with her for a visit.

Two bridges on Salmon are reported to have been washed out by the high water last Saturday noon.

J. P. Bones returned home Friday night and reported the roads in bad shape over the mountains.

Saturday seemed to be the rainy day of the year. The river and small streams raised rapidly.

Anton Bratara went up to Mr. Leman's Saturday.

Andrew Alinog was a Taft caller Sunday.

Mrs. Liswig and two daughters, Lilly and Fosa, returned home Friday from a two weeks' visit in Portland.

Mr. Kalta, while returning home from the bay Saturday, had to wade or walk a fence, so decided to try the fence and when at the deepest place fell in, then decided to wade out.

John Saarenpaa, Harvey Hill and Andrew Alingo took dinner at Charlie Robertson's Sunday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hille, January 8, a 10-pound boy.

Andrew Immonen went to the cannery Monday on business.

Eddyville.

J. T. Nagle of Hays Creek was in town Saturday.

Ewd. Mauch has received his commission and is now postmaster in fact.

A. M. Baxter of Corvallis spent a couple of days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentice went to Philomath last Saturday to visit friends for a few days.

Pat Hodges of Elk City made his usual weekly visit on this side last Sunday.

The storms of last week caused some damage to the roads, such as slides and washouts, but the water did not reach high water mark by several feet. W. F. Wakefield, the road boss, is out with a crew repairing the roads this week.

W. J. Cline is evidently preparing for the Lincoln County Fair next Fall. He has purchased five or six head of fine Angora goats at the recent goat show at Dallas, one of which is a champion show animal.

Ona

Mrs. Alice Rutledge of Portland is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Guilleams.

J. H. Wolfersperger, Lloyd Commons and Mark Jones went to Newport Monday.

The mail stage went through on Monday with Mr. Hagan, Jr., of Drift creek as a passenger, returning on Tuesday accompanied by Mr. Rice of Portland.

Chester Ryan has gone to Garibaldi, where he joined Arthur Holmgreen. They are working for the P. R. & N. railroad.

Theodore Weber returned to Washington, going to Yaquin on Sunday. He spent the holidays with his father and brother.

John Coovert is rather under the weather at the present time.

The heavy storms the past week caused Beaver creek to overflow its banks considerably.

D. W. Hewett made a trip to Seal Rocks on Thursday, looking after some of his cottages.

Siletz

We have been having bad weather for some time but the stock is looking fine. The farmers are well supplied with feed. Klamath Charley, an old Indian, says the moon is in the right shape to indicate an early Spring.

Norman Strong has opened up a butcher shop here.

Tom Hollis, the boat builder, gave an order to Mr. Raddant, our sawmill man, for 400 feet of boat lumber.

Mrs. Mary Rose died on the 11th. She was an old woman and came to this county in 1856.

Many Indian citizens are absent from home on account of the liquor law and the Federal court at Portland.

The Siletz river and small creeks have been up over the high water mark and the homesteaders could not get to town for a few days.

Frank McIntyre has a friend visiting him, who is from Washington state.

John Brown reports that his sick wife is getting better. Glad to learn this.

Hoxie Simmons of Upper Farm was visiting at the Agency a few days on business. He claims he has some strawberries in bloom, and has a lot of logan berries out.

Mrs. Allie Moggan arrived home again and says that Mr. Moggan is missing and that she will have to give a reward for him. Too much "hot water."

Bay View.

The heaviest winds and highest water for the season came Thursday and Friday of last week. Although there was no damage resulting from either the water or the wind.

Ole Olson went to Newport the first of the week to have some dental work done.

Fred Strake was down from his Drift creek ranch Saturday, looking after some boom logs he purchased from J. C. Barnes.
